Haunting

My window that never leave me alone

(self.Paranormal)

submitted 2 months ago by FunkyZunky143

So this has been going on for years and years.

The most worrying is the knocks on my windows. they usually happen at night when its pitch black outside.

The worst was 2 days ago. I was laying in my bed watching YouTube and then I hear a knock. This has happened many times so I did nothing.

However the knocking only got louder to the point of banging on my window. I open my blinds to see nothing. There is also a street light right next to my house I can barely see it.

That gives me enough light to see my front porch and walk way with no one there. I believe something is following me because I had hauntings at a other house I am scared of my window now.
