Two paranormal stories from my early teenage years

(self.Paranormal)

submitted 2 months ago by Snoopilaa

I'm 25 now and these things happened about 10 years ago.. I had much weirder experiences happen later on, some may be too weird to share..

First one, I was in my bed about to go to sleep, I'm talking to my sister who was sitting next to me.. My window was open, and out of nowhere we hear water pouring loudly right outside the window.. I'm on the second floor of my family home, there is nobody upstairs but us at that moment, there is no water source on the floor and it sounds like someone is emptying a huge bucket. At this point we're looking at each other both scared to look outside, BUT HERE IS WHERE IT GETS WEIRD.. My computer was off, I had an old canyon webcam with a blue light that would ONLY turn on when the cam was on. Like if I'm on a video call, or recording something. THE LIGHT TURNED ON.. Light was on for like 10 seconds and the water kept pouring the entire time then it all stopped. It may not sound that scary but we were both frozen.

Second story.. I had a cousin sleep over and we stayed up late downstairs watching tv, everyone went to sleep upstairs and I slept on the living room couch. I was woken up at around 5 am by the loud sound of dishes falling, like when you stack them up after washing and they collapse. I was already terrified cause I felt like someone was in the kitchen.. Then I heard another 3-4 sounds of dishes.. Then the faucet started leaking.. And then clear as day I saw some transparent shadow walking left across the hallway then back right. It was summer so at 5am it's already bright. The thing I saw was like a lighter shadow, grayish.. tall as a person. I was wide awake it was not sleep paralysis.

Oh wow, very interesting. Have you seen the shadow figure before/after that?

Nope.. I've seen some dark non uniformed shapes, and other than that all my experiences had something to do with sleep paralysis.
