Question Is my apartment

haunted? (self.Paranormal)
submitted 2 months ago by mirimedi

So a few months back a couple of my friends and I moved into an apartment not that far from our college and where we all worked. We lived on the second story floor, in our 2 bedroom apartment and didn't initially notice anything weird. It started a week after we moved in, we noticed things just suddenly went missing.

The first thing we lost was a whole tub of ice cream, we were all weirded out by it but just thought we left it at the grocery store. Then it started to escalate as a box of tuna helper(hamburger helper but for tuna), a whole box of 40 croissants rolls, and cake mix all gone within the next month. At first, we thought this was weird but we had a meeting about it and realized that none of us had interacted with these items after we unpack them from a grocery trip. We've also noticed weird noises coming from our refrigerator. from the moment we moved in it made some odd noises specifically around 4-7 am, never in the daytime or when we're cooking late at night. My housemate and I have heard knocking sounds coming from it which we initially would brush off as our neighbor but they continued even when our neighbor moved out. Their old apartment was unoccupied for about a week but the knocking continued. Not only that but when I went to work at my desk in the dining area and I heard faint painful groaning noises coming from the refrigerator. It only lasted about 5 minutes but it still freaks me out thinking about it. Today it suddenly got strange. We all left Thanksgiving break and before we did we cleaned out all the cabinets of perishables and left them basically empty. However, when my housemate and I came back we noticed a can of biscuits we thought went missing a while back was there but this time the biscuits had pooped out of its container from the opposite end of where it normally opens. Later on, our other housemate came back she noticed her charger for her Nintendo Switch went missing.

We're all panicking about the apartment now. We're not sure what to do about this and it's been making our finals week already more stressful. Is our apartment haunted? What should we do?
