Discussion ghost named tom (self.Paranormal)submitted 2 months ago by nessibaby

literally 30 minutes ago my gf and i were just laying in bed on vacation at my dads house in florida (i'm from florida but i moved to ohio w my mom and stepdad a year ago) and our friend olivia was laying on the floor . ALL OF A SUDDEN my suitcase just randomly tips over when it's been standing up in the same spot for over 12 hours ,, and i immediately am like i'm gonna download a spirit box on my phone (bc i just took a rly big dab n i was freaking out that i could maybe talk to a spirit or something) and we all kept hearing the same answers over and over. we found out his name was Tom, and he was just checking on his grandma who lives next door to my dads . we asked her name, and he said it was kathleen, which is the next door neighbor's name. there was some other very "coincidental" things that he said which went perfectly with our questions, but we told him goodbye and he said "goodbye friend" and it was just really fucking interesting and i hope it was real but still it was entertainment for a really high individual like me

Usually with spirit boxes you can download on your phone they have pre-recorded messages that respond to sound I know this because I downloaded quite a few but even still I think if you want it to and give it access to a ghost can talk through it as long as you ask questions and get answers a pre-recorded message most likely wouldn't answer correctly then it might be real but I don't know that's just my thoughts

that's why i was so shocked by it, it kept answering rilly long questions with answers that made sense every time. it just made it seem more realistic i guess? but i know phone spirit boxes are kinda ehhhh but if you had been there when it happened u would've freaked. it was just one after the other he would answer us exactly to what we were asking

Hmm I don't know if the questions were long and it answered coherently then that kinda eliminates the possibility of it being fake either that or it's a really good spirit box app
