Dream My grandma visited me on my birthday

(self.Paranormal)

submitted 2 months ago by itsDBTS

This happened back in 2014. She passed away in November of that year. She was in a medically induced coma so doctors could see what they could do while she was down under, but the doctors noticed her condition was getting worse and she was unable to wake up. As you can imagine it broke my heart knowing I couldn't hear her tell me she loved me one last time. Eventually with my family's decision, they decided to let my grandma pass so she didn't have to suffer anymore.

So the next month of December was my birthday, I'm actually born on the day before Christmas. So anyway, in my dream I encountered this little boy who seemed quite familiar. If you've ever seen the Christian/Catholic depiction of the child Jesus, El Niño, he looked strikingly similar to him although details were much more blurry in my dream. I didn't recognize he looked like El Niño until later after awakening.

In my dream, the child told me to carry out 3 tasks and he will give me a gift. I can't clearly remember exactly the tasks but they were incredibly regular every day tasks. For some reason I do remember that one of the tasks was to serve iced tea to the guests, lol.

After completion of the tasks, I turned around and right behind me was my grandma who just smiled at me. Even in my dream I wept at the sight of her at an instant. She smiled, didn't say a word, and walked behind a wall and was gone. It was short, sweet, but all that I needed to know how much love there was. I woke up right after that and was bawling my eyes out. My parents came in cuz they heard me crying and I explained to them what happened. My mom started to cry as I explained. I'm sure they tried to seek answers since they were good friends with the priest at our local church. To this day, I can't put to words that fateful dream. But I will always remember that smile and the love I've felt at that very moment.

Who was the little boy? The "magic" number 3 as always referenced in religion; 3 tasks I had to fulfill. The answers I will always search for. Has this happened to anyone before? I've read that yes, people have seen their deceased loved ones but has anyone encountered the sort of task I was given by someone you've never met?

That's amazing, I've never experienced this or heard someone talking about it.

I've had visitors in dreams before. They usually come when the dream is completely unrelated to anything. Did the tasks feel like a test to see your grandmother? She might've just been popping into a dream to check in
